

PUBG MOBILE TOURNAMENT

Rule Book

Most important rule

This is a PUBG MOBILE tournament, I repeat 'mobile' tournament.

Only smartphones are allowed to be used to play the game. PCs, consoles, laptops or any other non-handheld device are not allowed. Even using the official emulator on PC is not allowed.

This is a LAN tournament, not an online tournament. So, every player must be present at the event.

Team

PUBG Mobile tournaments are usually played in teams of four. Each team is required to maintain four players in the team's starting line-up. Teams also have the option to add one more player who will act as a substitute. There is no compulsion that the number of players in the team has to be five. It's the maximum number of players allowed in a team.

Rules for DISQUALIFICATION

If players are found to collude with members of other teams to provide any player with advantages or benefits, or pre-arranging to split the prize money will lead to disqualification of the team.

Tournament officials reserves the right to disqualify teams even if one person from the team is caught cheating or using any unfair means.

Moreover, vulgar or hateful speech, violence, drugs and alcohol, gambling, studio interference and unauthorised communication will lead to disqualification.
